The President

It is the President's responsibility to enforce the strict observance of The Constitution of The National Society of The Colonial Dames of America and the Charter and Bylaws of The South Carolina Society.

The President is expected to attend the regular meetings of the National Board and Biennial Council, National Meetings held in conjunction with National Board Meetings in odd years, and the National Nominating Committee during the term of South Carolina on that Committee.

The President shall preside at all meetings of The Society and of the Board of Managers. She shall submit a detailed agenda to the Recording Secretary and the 1st Vice President.

The President shall appoint the Parliamentarian, with the approval of the Board.

The President shall appoint two (2) members of the Finance Committee and attend all meetings of The Finance Committee.

The President shall appoint the chairmen of all committees except those elected by The Society and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee.

On even years, the President shall appoint two delegates and three alternates to the Biennial Council and shall be ex-officio chairman of this group with the authority to appoint substitutes as necessary. (See details in schedule under April- "After Annual Meeting") The President is responsible for her delegation and should inform the Biennial Council Arrangements Committee of any changes in her delegation. The President shall discuss with her Society's Board of Managers and the Delegates and Alternates elected to the Council the matters to be brought before the Council for vote, in order that they may represent their Society in an informed manner in the Biennial Council.

On odd years, the President shall appoint up to 7 attendees to the National Meetings. (See details in schedule under April- "After the Annual Meeting")

The President shall appoint the State Admissions Committee from the members of the Board of Managers. The President shall appoint one of this committee to act as Chairman.

2021-2022 Job Descriptions

The President shall fill any vacancy on the Board of Managers that occurs outside of the Nominating schedule with the approval of the Board of Managers.

The President shall write welcoming letters to all courtesy and new members of The Society as soon as they officially become members. She signs the copies of the Final Lineage Blanks and returns them to the Registrar.

The President signs all contracts and agreements between The Society and any outside party.

Nominating Committee

The future course of our Society lies in the hands of the Nominating Committee. This committee shall discharge its obligation to the Society by thoughtful, careful consideration of the requirements of the job to be filled and the qualifications of the nominee to serve in that position. The duties of the Nominating Committee are stated in the NSCDA-SC Standing Rules.

Nominating Committee: The Committee consists of 5 members and 1 alternate. Each December the Board shall elect 2 members of the Board of Managers from the slate of five provided by the current Nominating Committee. The member receiving the highest number of votes shall serve as the Nominating Chair for the following year, while the nominee with the third highest number of votes shall be the Alternate. Nominating then draws up a slate of five nominees from the general membership, 3 of whom are elected in April at the Annual Meeting.

After determining the vacancies in the officer and manager positions for the following year, the Committee should contact those officers and managers for their suggestions. Members of the Board know the job requirements, as well as people who have been active, interested, and are qualified to serve. While the President does not serve ex-officio on this Committee, she may give suggestions as well.

Terms of office:

1. Officers: One-year term for up to 6 consecutive years
2. Board of Managers: 3 years for 2 consecutive terms, after any unexpired term
3. Lady of Dumbarton House: nominated by State President with approval of the Board of Managers, then appointed by the National President for a two-year term and may be appointed for 2 additional terms
4. Regent of Gunston Hall: nominated by the President, then approved and appointed by the Governor of Virginia to represent South Carolina
5. Associate Trustee, Friends of Sulgrave Manor: appointed at the discretion of the President and may serve 2 consecutive 2-year terms
6. Town Committee Chairs sit on the State Board during their terms in office

Nominees:

The Committee must make clear to all nominees that:

1. Attendance at Board meetings and committee meetings is expected. More than 3 absences will be unexcused and may result in the removal of that member from the Board.
2. An annual contribution to The Powder Magazine Partnerships and to the 3 National Museum Houses is expected by 100% of the Board.

Board Members Completing Terms:

- After serving as a member of the Board of Managers for 2 three-year terms, a member may be elected as an officer with the possibility of serving 6 one-year terms, but may not serve again immediately as a member of the Board of Managers.
- After serving as an officer of The Society for 6 one-year terms, that officer may be elected to serve as an officer in a different position and can be reelected to that position for the maximum of 6 one-year terms. She may also be elected to the Board of Managers for 2 three-year terms.

Unexpired Terms:

- If an Officer or Board member is unable to complete her term, the President must be notified and she, in turn, shall contact the Nominating Chairman.
- Should the vacancy occur when it is feasible for the Nominating Committee to do so, the Committee shall include a nomination for the unexpired term on their slate. The President, with the approval of the Board of Managers, shall appoint a member to fill the unexpired term at other times in the year.
- The member may be elected in her own right when the unexpired term has been completed.

Biennial Council: On the even years, delegates and alternates must be nominated to attend Biennial Council. Each Colonial Society is entitled to send 5 voting delegates and 5 alternates to Council. The Nominating Committee shall nominate 2 delegates and 2 alternates to be voted on at the Annual Meeting. The President is automatically a delegate and is also entitled to nominate 2 delegates and 3 alternates. She chooses her delegates and alternates after the Nominating Committee has announced its slate: the President's nominees are not included in the report of the Nominating Committee nor are they subject to discussion or vote at any meeting.

The nominees from both the Nominating Committee and the President should include the following positions:

Fourth Vice President (Finance)	Historic Activities
Registrar	Museum Properties
Associate States Registrar	Patriotic Service

NOMINATING COMMITTEE SCHEDULE

Summer

- Determine the Officers whose 6 one-year terms will expire. They will need to be replaced.
- Determine members of the Board of Managers whose 2 three-year terms will expire. They will need to be replaced.

September–November

- Contact those Officers who have not served for 6 years to see if they would be willing to serve another 1-year term (if so determined by the Nominating Committee in consultation with the President).
- Contact those members of the Board of Managers to see if they would be willing to serve a second 3-year term (if so determined by the Nominating Committee in consultation with the President).
- Begin the selection process, being certain that the nominee has been a member of The South Carolina Society for the required three years. Each person should receive a job description before accepting the nomination and be advised of the expectation to attend the Board meetings. The Chairs of Historical Activities, Museum Properties, and Patriotic Service, as well as the President, Treasurer, Registrar, and Associate States Registrar should be advised that they are expected to attend Biennial and any other national or regional meetings, if possible.

December

- Prepare a slate of 5 board members for the following year's Nominating Committee for the December Board Meeting. Nominations may be taken from the floor and added to the ballot at the meeting. Each board member shall vote for 2 from the slate of 5. The Nominating Committee Chair and the Parliamentarian count the votes. The nominee receiving the highest number of votes shall serve as the Nominating Chair for the following year, while the one receiving the third highest votes shall be the Alternate.

January

- Write a letter to the President to inform her of the slate of Officers, the Board of Managers to be elected and the 5 names (with 3 to be elected) from the general membership for the following year's Nominating Committee. This must be in her hands in advance of the February Board Meeting.
- In even years, the slate shall also include the names of 2 delegates and 2 alternates for Biennial.

February

- Present the slate to the State Board for approval at the February Board meeting.
- Provide a copy of the approved slate as laid out in the Nominating Committee Manual to the editor of The Palmetto Post for publication in the March issue. This meets the requirement in the Standing Rules that the slate must be announced to the membership 30 days prior to the Annual Meeting.

April

- Ensure a copy of the full slate is printed for every member attending the Annual Meeting. The page lists the Officers and Board of Managers to be approved by acclamation at the top, while the bottom half listing the Nominating Committee slate will be torn off and serve as a paper ballot.
- The ballots shall be collected and counted by the Nominating Committee Chair and the Parliamentarian, with results announced at the end of the meeting. (A record of the votes received by each nominee shall be kept in case a member of the new Nominating Committee becomes unable to serve.)

May

- The Nominating Committee Manual and any updated files shall be provided to the new Nominating Chair.

Town Committee Chairman

The Town Committee Chair should be thoroughly familiar with By-laws, Article XI Town Committee Organization. The chair acts on two levels:

On the State level:

1. She serves as the liaison between the local committee members and the SC State Board of Managers.
2. She serves as a voting member on the Board of Managers for a 2-year term and attends the monthly meetings, as well as all General Membership Meetings and the Annual Meetings. This term shall not begin until after the Annual Membership meeting in April.
3. She reports on the town committee activities as needed or requested by the President and sends a copy of the report to the State Recording Secretary.
4. She submits articles on the town committee news to the Palmetto Post as appropriate. She submits information for the town committee section of the NSCDA-SC website to the Corresponding Secretary.
5. She provides the President of the SC Society and the Corresponding Secretary a list of officers elected each year.
6. Prior to the end of the fiscal year, March 31, she notifies the State Treasurer of the numbers of members in her town committee.
7. She submits an annual report on her Town Committee by March 1 to the President, the Historian and to Headquarters.

On the Town Committee level:

1. She presides at all business meetings of the town committee and its executive board meetings.
2. She keeps the local members of her town committee informed of the current business of the State Board of Managers and updates the finances of the State Society.
3. She reminds town committee members of their responsibilities, including financial obligations, as a member of the SC Society. She encourages the participation and cooperation to fulfill the mission and objectives of the National Society of The Colonial Dames in America.
4. She appoints and oversees chairs of Historical Activities and Patriotic Service. These chairs serve on the State Historical Activities and Patriotic Service Committees and are expected to attend the meetings of such committees.

5. She appoints and oversees a Chair of Necrology who works in conjunction with the State Registrar.
6. She appoints and oversees a Yearbook Chair, who is responsible for the preparation and distribution of the yearbook to the State Society President and the Corresponding or Recording Secretary. This committee should consist of the Yearbook Chair, the Corresponding or Recording Secretary, and the Treasurer of the town committee. Each town committee will determine the timing and method of distribution for their yearbook.
7. She appoints and oversees representatives to the Young Dames Committee (when appropriate and numbers allow) and The Colonial Council (formerly The Powder Magazine) who serve on the corresponding State committees, and who are expected to attend the meetings of such committees.
8. She is responsible for conducting a New Member Orientation each year and assigns a member of the town committee to mentor each new Dame.

Admissions:

The Town Committee Chair must be thoroughly familiar with Article VI, Membership Admissions #1-11 so that she can answer questions regarding this subject and assist her qualified town committee members in proposing candidates.

1. She appoints an Admissions Committee consisting of three to five members and one member to act as chair. The members of the Admissions Committee shall be known only to the Chair of the Town Committee, the Chair of the Admissions Committee of that town committee, and the President of The South Carolina Society, should she request that information. They must maintain the highest level of confidentiality as they consider newly proposed ladies.
2. In the appointment of the Admissions Committee, the Town Committee Chair shall consider the following and select from as broad a spectrum as possible so that a proposed member might be known by at least one committee member:
 - Different age groups
 - Different social groups
 - Different parts of town or towns included in your town committee
3. In instructing the Admissions Committee, she asks that they do the following:
 - Read Mrs. Lamar's letter, which stresses that the eligibility of the candidate's ancestor is not in question in this process, but the valuable community service and interests of the candidate pertaining to our

- mission and our State Society, is paramount. A copy of Mrs. Lamar's letter is in the Board of Managers Manual in the Introduction Section, 1.4.
- Read the By-laws VI -B. Voting on Admissions #1-5 for general background.
- Read By-laws X-F. State Admissions Committee, #1-8 for general background.
- Read By-laws XI-B Town Admissions Committee, #1-11 for further information and instructions.

Town Committee Guidelines for Financial Affairs

1. The SC Society is one SC non-profit corporation in accordance with IRS regulations for a 501(c)(3) "public charity." Our purpose is "education." Non-profit status is an important privilege and regulates how we treat our financial affairs. The Powder Magazine is not a separate corporation/non-profit.
2. All checks should be made out to NSCDA-SC (include PM or ___TC in name).
3. Scholarship Checks should be made out to the School FBO the student's name.
4. Checks within the Society are never made to individual Dames except if the State Treasurer reimburses a Dame for an authorized documented Dames expense.
5. All Town Committees have their own checking account. TC Treasurers receive checkbooks and access to this account from the State Treasurer. All deposits made to the TC checking account should be recorded by the TC Treasurer.
6. Bills for Dames activity are paid by the TC Treasurer using the TC's bank account. The TC Treasurer reconciles the bank account each month and sends a copy of the reconciliation to the State Treasurer.
7. If it is necessary for a Dame to pay a bill, the receipt is sent to the State Treasurer with a Reimbursement Request authorized by the TC Chairman or Treasurer.
8. If there is a question or problem on payment methods, contact the State Treasurer.
9. Payment and Reimbursement Authorizations - mail or scan and email.

10. If an independent contractor (vendor) is to be paid $600 or more for services in a calendar year, we first need a signed IRS Form W-9 with social security number.
11. Insurance coverage of risks to our real estate and liquid assets is extremely important; if risk is connected with your activity, contact the State Treasurer. It is important to have liquor liability coverage by licensed bar service.
12. Make wise financial decisions for the TC by making a budget, develop a method to track your revenues and expenditures, keep in contact with the State Treasurer.
13. Track Town Committee members, dues, and contributions with Dues Reports from the Assistant Treasurer. Dues are due by April 1st. After that there is a $20 late fee. A member may resign in good standing (dues paid up for the previous year) only by written notice before June 1. See Assistant Treasurer's job description in the Board Manual for all these details.

New Member Orientation Guidelines- NSCDA-SC

Each Town Committee should provide a welcoming orientation to new members at least once a year. If there are only a few new members, this could be done by inviting the new member or members to lunch or to a member's home to make the orientation a friendly introduction to the Society. In addition, the town committee board should include a member who oversees the mentoring of the new members.

Orientation should be presented by the Town Committee Chairman and other members who are active in the Committee. The State President and the Membership Vice President should review these guidelines and may modify them as necessary.

Topics covered should include:

1. Mission of NSCDA
2. Structure

Lady of The Dumbarton House Board from South Carolina Mission Statement of the Ladies of the Dumbarton House Board

The mission of each Dumbarton House Board representative is two-fold. She is to participate in the operation and contribute to the support of the Dumbarton House. Within her Corporate Society her particular responsibility is to develop among the members a high level of interest in Dumbarton House and to inform the members of the activities and educational programs at the Dumbarton House Museum as well as the services offered to the Corporate Societies by the National Society Office. Each year she is expected to solicit support of Dumbarton House through the Friends of Dumbarton House Campaign.

The Dumbarton House Board is a National Standing Committee

Representatives to the Dumbarton House Board are nominated by their Corporate Societies and appointed by the National President. The Chairman and members of Standing Committees serve a two-year term and may be appointed for two more terms (totaling six years).

Members of the Dumbarton House Board have the following responsibilities:

All members of the Dumbarton House Board are expected to adhere to the Board Code of Ethics.

Representatives will attend spring and fall board meetings at Dumbarton House and designate a substitute, if possible, when unable to attend. Each member is responsible for her own expenses.

Each board member will contribute a Leadership Gift to the annual Friends campaign, as well as $200 a year to the Ladies of Dumbarton Fund NSCDA. This latter fund is used at the discretion of the Chairman of Dumbarton House.

Each board member will serve on a committee of the Dumbarton House Board and complete committee work as needed.

Ladies who are representatives of the Corporate Societies send the “Friends of Dumbarton House” solicitation letters, provided by Dumbarton House each year, to the members of their Societies. A Dumbarton House staff member will inform the Representatives of contributions received and the Representatives and/or her Town Committee representatives should write thank-you notes to the donors. Friends of Dumbarton House funds are used to support the National Headquarters, its museum collection as well as the education, history and research efforts at Dumbarton House.

Representatives should solicit an annual gift to Friends of Dumbarton House from the Corporate Societies and Town Committees within her state.

Each board member should make members of their Societies aware of “The Fund For The Future”. Donations to this fund will provide an endowment for Dumbarton House.

Representative should regularly report to their Corporate Societies on the activities at Dumbarton House. They should provide information about Dumbarton House website: www.dumbartonhouse.org.

Dumbarton House Town Committee Representatives Responsibilities

Each Town Committee is to select a Dumbarton House Representative to serve a three (3) year term. She shall be a member of the State Dumbarton House Committee, which consists of one representative from each of the six Town Committees and is chaired by the Lady of the Dumbarton House Board from South Carolina. The State Representative will update the Town Committee Chair on current events at Dumbarton House so that she can make an announcement at her meetings. The Town Committee Representatives will be informed by the State Representative of donations to the Friends Campaign. The Town Committee Representative is to acknowledge donations from their town committee members. She should keep Dumbarton House ever-present on their minds.

Regent to Gunston Hall

Under the governing documents of the NSCDA, when a Regent accepts her appointment to become a Regent, she shall serve a five year term, with the option of serving a second five-year term, for a combined total of ten years.

- Regents' meetings are held twice a year, in October (the Annual Meeting) and in April (the Semi-Annual Meeting). They last approximately three days and are mandatory. Committee conference calls may be necessary between the Annual and Semi-Annual Meetings. A Regent may not send a proxy or substitute in her absence. A Regent's absence from two annual or semi-annual meetings without the express consent of the First Regent may be cause for dismissal.
- Each new Regent attends her first meeting in October (as an Observer) with her State's retiring Regent. Observers participate in a thorough orientation program at this meeting. Observers officially become Regents after a vote at the fall meeting of the NSCDA National Board and after receiving a formal appointment by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
- Regents are responsible for their own travel and meeting expenses. The expenses connected with meetings are tax-deductible.
- Each Regent is expected to pay annual dues in the amount of $500 (in October) to the-BRGHI. New Regents will receive an invoice for this amount following their appointment by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Retiring Regents are exempt from paying dues.
- Each Regent is responsible for supporting the annual BRGHI fundraising campaign. Former Regents will explain how your state accomplishes this yearly solicitation.
- Each Regent makes a short report to her Society whenever possible about the status of Gunston Hall, as well as writes a report for her Society's Annual Meeting. She is also encouraged to write an article for her state publication, if there is one.
- The Regent is responsible for getting information to the Town Committee Representatives so that they can make a report to their respective Town Committees in January or February.
- Each Regent serves as an ambassador for Gunston Hall and does everything in her power to advise others of the important contributions to our nation by George Mason.

2021-2022 Job Descriptions

- Regents receive continuous education, while forming lasting, life-long friendships.
- Should a State Regent resign before completing either a five or a ten year term, she must submit a letter of resignation to the President of her State Society, and forward copies to the President of the NSCDA, the First Regent of Gunston Hall, and the Chairman of the Gunston Hall Regent Nominating Committee.
- The name of any candidate recommended for a Regent-at-Large position should be submitted to the Regent and President of the society in which the candidate resides. The society Regent or President can then present her nomination to the Chairman of the NSCDA Gunston Hall Regent Nominating Committee. Should a Regent-at-Large resign before completing either a five or ten year term, she must submit a letter of resignation to the Chairman of the NSCDA Gunston Hall Regent Nominating Committee and forward copies to the First Regent of Gunston Hall and to the President of the NSCDA.

Young Dames Chair

The Young Dames Chair is a non-voting position appointed by the President for a one-year term, renewable annually.

The Young Dames Chair is responsible for facilitating communication and satisfaction among Young Dames.

Town Committees are encouraged to have their own Young Dames Chairs, and the state Young Dames Chair should correspond regularly with the YD Chairs in the town committees to assist them and ensure that ideas are being shared across the state.

The Young Dames Chair with the assistance of the Office Manager should promote the use of social media as a means of communicating with Young Dames.

The Young Dames Chair should encourage participation by all Young Dames with the understanding that their time may be very limited. It is important that Young Dames be able to find a way to be a part of NSCDA-SC so that when they do have more time, they will be comfortable increasing their level of participation. Social events tailored to Young Dames, done in a day projects and attendance at one event annually such as the Christmas Luncheon or one town committee meeting are suggestions.

The Young Dames Chair should correspond (eBlast or eNewsletter) with all Young Dames on a regular (perhaps quarterly) basis to keep them informed of what is going on in the organization that might appeal to them and offer ideas for participation.

The Young Dames Chair should serve as an advocate for Young Dames helping to ensure that their membership is appreciated by all Dames and that more experienced Dames recognize their value to the organization.
